Our traditional first event of the year and one of the most popular continues at the Callo's this year. Time to trash all those New Year's resolutions as we once again overindulge in what must be the most decadent feast on the NY/Conn calendar. While the feature foods will be heavily slanted toward the dessert side of the menu, Marion promises to have something to sooth the less-sweet tooth.

Give Marion a call to let her know that you'll be able to make it and what you'd like to bring. She might even have some suggestions on what might best fill out the menu, if you don't have a personal favorite.

RSVP: Be sure to let Marion know of your intentions by Wednesday, February 13 at (203) 261-2432 or MAPACALLO@aol.com.

February 9, 2008

This impromptu event is sponsored by Ann and Dick DiRenno. Based on a recommendation from the Trombetta's, they checked out the exhibit currently at the Katonah Museum of Art and found it quite enjoyable and inspiring. In fact, they liked it so much that they wanted all of us to have a chance to see it so they volunteered to put together a little outing that would include the museum tour and a lunch afterwards at Il Forno's Restaurant in Somers. RSVP to Ann ASAP (by Feb. 6, if possible) so she can try to adjust the restaurant reservations (914-762-0698; annrichdr@msn.com). The itinerary for the day would be:

10:30 AM - Meet at the Museum (Admission is free between 10:00 Am - Noon)

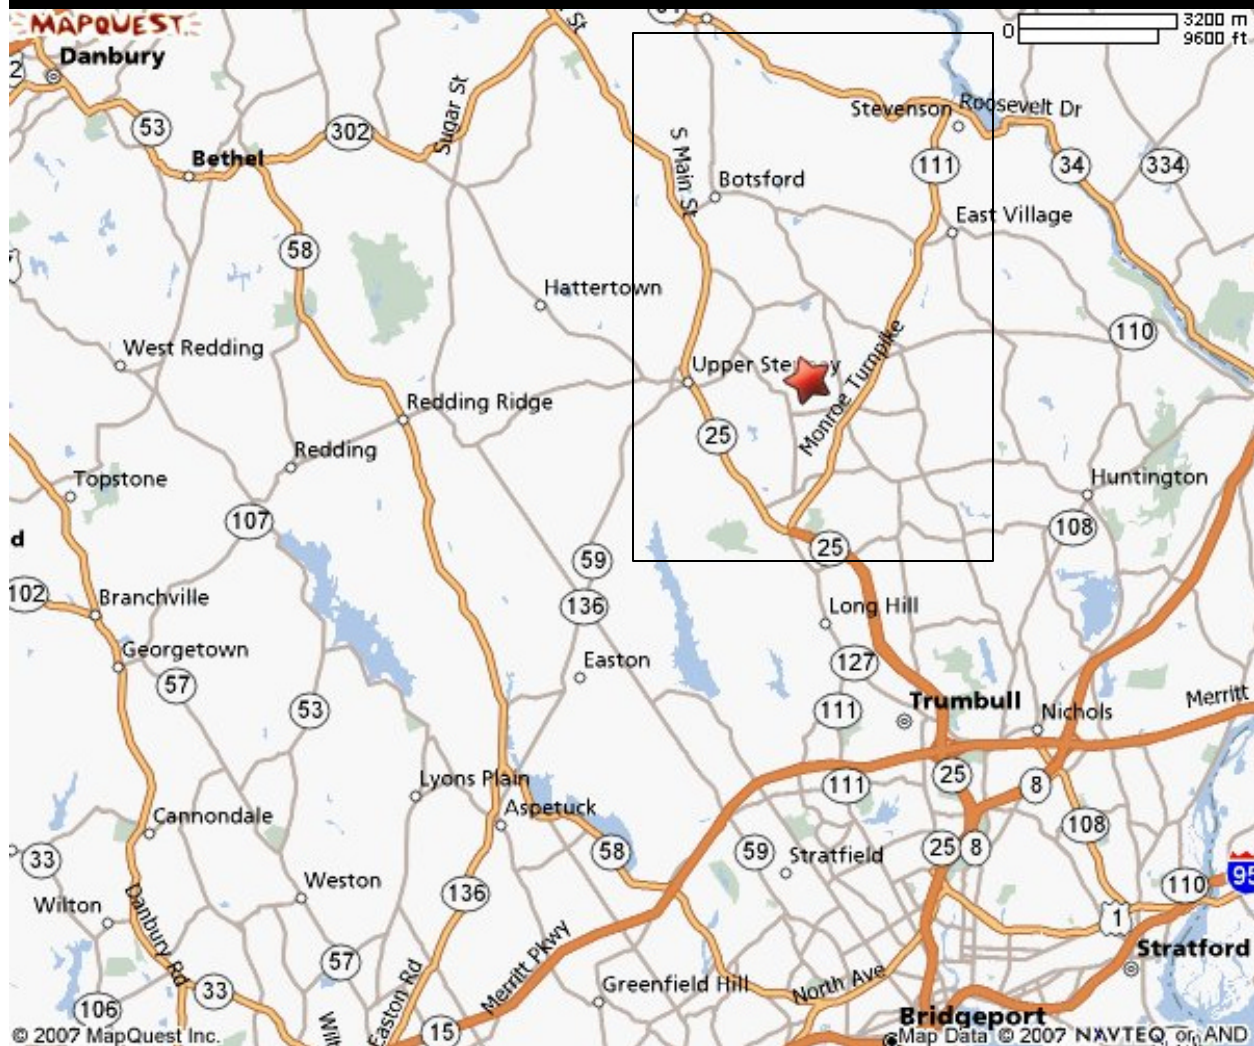

10:30 - 11:30 AM: Tour the exhibit - Check out the website for details on the exhibit: <http://www.katonahmuseum.org/exhibitions.php>.

11:30 - 12:00 Noon: Travel to Il Forno's Restaurant, 343 Rt. 202 (Route 100), Somers, NY 10589; 914-277-7575

12:00—1:00 PM: Lunch at Il Forno's

1:30 PM—?: Find your way back home
